Charity Centre for Children and Youth Development (CCCYD) is an independent, Non-profit, Non-political and Nonreligious Organizations registered with the registrar of NGOs in Zambia under the Ministry of Community Development and Social Services, registration No. RNGO 101/0253/14. The organization is also approved as a public benefit organization (PBO) pursuant to the Income Tax Act of the Laws of Zambia through the Zambia Revenue Authority (ZRA) Tax Identification Number 1002013970. CCCYD was established with the aim of helping youths, Orphans and vulnerable children (OVCs), with education, entrepreneurship and vocational skills training in North-western province of Zambia.

CCCYD is involved in different areas of women, youth and children's development work such as primary education, girls post-secondary education scholarship, girls mentorship, entrepreneurship and vocational skills, financial literacy education targeting small scale farmers and micro entrepreneurs, Youth capacity building, health, environment & Climate Change, women empowerment and Social and Economic Advancement. CCCYD also coordinates Good Deeds Day in Zambia, a global movement which aims at mobilizing people to help others and protect the environment with a simple act of kindness by Speaking Good, Thinking Good and Doing Good.

2.1 Mission Statement

The Charity Centre for Children and Youth Development (CCCYD) was established as a community response to a multitude of health, educational, and social crises exacerbated by HIV/AIDS. CCCYD hopes to provide its community members - particularly women, children, and orphans - with the resources they need to succeed in order to promote sustainable development in the region. To do so, CCCYD offers educational opportunities, vocational training, financial literacy education, and community-building assistance to those who live in the Solwezi and North-western province as a whole.

2.2 Vision Statement

The Charity Centre for Children and Youth Development (CCCYD) hopes to expand significantly in the future in order to assist the greatest number of the vulnerable population in the Solwezi District as possible. Over the next five years, CCCYD will work to expand its funding in both the grant and crowdfunding sectors with the goal of using this funding to build more classrooms, hire more teachers, and offer more levels of education to students. Furthermore, CCCYD hopes to expand its skill development offerings and provide the chance for members of its community to gain certifications in entrepreneurship and vocational skills training. Lastly, CCCYD wants to increase its capacity to promote women's empowerment and financial success in the region.
